Dear Sakyadhita Canada Members,

Sakyadhita Canada would very much appreciate you taking a moment to fill out the survey questionnaire, that follows.

As a volunteer, charitable organization we would like to hear from our members and supporters.

May we come together in a spirit of friendship. Kalyanamitta
And may the goodness of all our efforts be shared in all directions.

Thank you for you input, and time.

Wishing everyone a Very Happy
Vesak

(In some traditions this is celebrated the first full moon of May...which is today.)

"MAY ALL BEINGS BE HAPPY"

"The Search, the Plan, the Destination.
Not always as it seems."

By Susan Pesut

Before I left for Japan in March of 2011, I researched a few things that I would like to see, and do well I was there.

In the back of my mind I had the thought of pursuing something, (not quite sure what that was?) but something? that had a connection to women, and Buddhism in Japan....
